EXTENSIVE VANDALISM CITED

Patrol to 'Watch' Westmoor

EXTENSIVE vandalism at Westmoor High School over the past month has prompted trustees of the Jefferson Union High School District to order special security measures.

The trustees Monday night authorized District Supt. Edward Morgan to contract with the Daly City Security Patrol for security during non-school hours.

The patrol will be asked to "watch" the school weekend nights as well as weekday nights.

The trustees acted after receiving a request from Westmoor Principal Glenn South.

In a letter to the board, South reported that both the school building and its grounds have been the targets of "considerable vandalism" during past weekends.

Some of the damage, he reported, includes:

Uprooting of several newly-planted evergreen trees.

More air rifle holes in the windows of the cafeteria.

Repeated vandalism to the school gardening shed and equipment.

Extensive damage to the football equipment storage shed and to electrical equipment.

Slashing of canvas backs on the football practice blocking sled.

The district currently is maintaining a close check on the Jefferson High School campus while construction of new classroom facilities is in progress.

Jefferson had experienced extensive damage to new windows last year when the first phase of its rebuilding program got under way.

The security check, however, had been inaugurated prior to the rebuilding program, accrding to district administrative officials.

MONDAY NIGHT'S action by the board of trustees came in the wake of a report last week that juvenile crime in San Mateo County is increasing far above the proportionate increase in population.

The increase was reported at the second annual Juvenile Protection Workshop in Burlingame, sponsored by the Seventeenth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

JUHS Maps Bond Election

$15,500,000 In New Funds To Be Sought

By DON MILLER

Trustees of the Jefferson Union High School District Monday night authorized a $15.5-million bond election that if successful, would finance the district's building needs through 1971.

Voters will be asked to ballot January 25 on the issue, which would be held at the same time residents of the Jefferson Elementary School District will vote on a $3-million issue.

The high school bonds would not add anything to the district's tax rate for at least 30 years, Asst. Supt. Fred Goodell told trustees.

This is because the district is now levying a maximum tax for bond repayments and this maximum would not change for this period, Goodell noted.

The $15-million issue would comprise $5.5-million that would be borrowed from the state and $10-million that would be raised by selling bonds.

District residents would be asked to approve authorization for the district to take both courses.

The monies would finance: the construction of Pengate and Serramonte high schools, the district's fifth and sixth facilities; the acquisition of sites for two more schools, and the construction of the final additions to Terra Nova and Oceana high schools.

Supt. Edward Morgan said the district, under the terms of its last bond election, can now borrow another $2,590,000 from the state. The district also has $1,090,000 in authorized bonds that have not been issued to date.

However, he explained, these (Please See Page 2, Column 1)

THIS FUTURISTIC-LOOKING full-scale model of what Daly City commuters will ride in when the Bay Area Rapid Transit District begins operations in 1968 will be on public display in Union Square, from tomorrow through Sunday, October 24. Hours will be 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily. BARTD will build an end-of-the-line station in Daly City near the intersection of the Junipero Serra and Southern Freeways.

Commission Asked Again In Daly City

A Daly City human relations organization has renewed its call for a human relations commission in a letter to the City Council and has cited two recent cases where a commission would have been helpful.

Community Inter-Action Thru You (CITY) has asked the council to move towards the formation of such a human relations commission.

Its letter states that, "It is our belief that since having met with various heads of civic, religious, and educational leaders, as well as numerous citizens in all sections of the city and discussing various problems which have arisen over the past year, there is a need for such a committee or commission."

The group further contends that there has been no formal reply by the council to a request for the establishment of a human relations committee.

The letter further states that, "In two . . . cases, except for immediate action on the part of citizens who are interested in preserving order and good will among all citizens in the community, a tragic event could have occurred in Daly City affecting the lives of many people."

The Rev. Howard Bryant, president of CITY, said one of the cases occurred September 23 when he met with nine Negro students at Jefferson High School to prevent a rumored fight.

Reverend Bryant yesterday said: "I talked with the students for about five hours and convinced them that there was no need for fighting and that there are other ways to solve problems."

He declined comment on the second case referred to in the letter and promised that the matter would be brought up again at the city council meeting Monday night.

Commenting on the letter from Bryant, Councilman Michael DeBernardi said yesterday that he had no knowledge of the letter.

He said the problems are now being discussed but that "no human relations commission has been planned at this time."

"We know of no problems in Daly City; this is a vague thing that has not been pin-pointed."

Construction Cave-ins Kill One, Hurt Another

A young San Francisco workman died and another laborer was injured in separate construction cave-ins in the North County last week.

William James Jackson, a worker for Fairley Constructors of Belmont, died of head injuries suffered when a ditch he had been digging caved in on him.

The ditch was in front of the Zellerbach Paper Company at 245 South Spruce Street in South San Francisco.

It was L-shaped to permit connection of a water pipe from an existing line to the new White Front store being built at Spruce and El Camino Real.

Jackson was in the bottom of the excavation, leveling the area beneath the existing main with a shovel, according to observers.

Fellow worker Ronald Chadman told police he saw the corner of the area cave in, covering Jackson.

Immediately, Chadman said, he began digging with his hands and called for help.

Several other workers jumped to the rescue and scratched the earth from Jackson's face so he would not suffocate.

Then they dug his body free.

The injured man was rushed to Kaiser Foundation Hospital. After emergency treatment there, Jackson was transferred to Peninsula Hospital where, despite treatment, he died.

Later in the week Thomas F. Lee of San Francisco was pinned in a ditch by a five-ton concrete slab at the intersection of Old Bayshore Highway and Geneva Avenue in Daly City.

The slab measured about four feet wide by 15 feet long and five feet deep.

Workmen managed to free the man by lifting the slab with a clam shovel.

Lee is an employe of Lowrie Paving Company of San Francisco.

The firm was laying underground telephone lines along Bayshore according to one of the supervisors on the scene when the slab fell on Lee.

He was taken to Peninsula Hospital with chest bruises and released after treatment.

Council Has Busy Agenda In Pacifica

Molotov cocktails, unleashed dogs, beach cliffs and bus benches will be among the subjects discussed at a meeting of the Pacifica City Council at 8 o'clock tonight.

A letter to the council from the Manor Village Improvement Club protests what the club says is a dangerous cliff barrier to a beach in Pacific Manor and asks the city to provide a safe access.

At tonight's meeting, beach planning recommendations of the Park, Beach and Recreation Committee and Planning Commission will be discussed.

The two organizations have given their approval to the city's proposed beach development program and would be involved in its fulfillment.

Recommendations to be made by the Planning Commission will include utilization of several (Please See Page 2, Column 4)

S.M. SCOUT HEAD

Manager Named By Coast C of C

By BERENICE PALMER

Bernard H. Lake Jr., San Mateo District Boy Scout executive, yesterday was named manager of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce.

His appointment was announced by Stanley vander Hule, president of the chamber, at a news conference held in the chamber's offices in the Eureka Square Shopping Center.

Lake will take over his new position November 1. He was chosen from 11 applicants seeking a post vacated by John Overfield who had resigned over difficulties with the chamber's directors.

The new manager formerly was employed in parole work in Missouri and later was associated with the San Mateo County Probation Department.

He and his wife moved to the Pacific Manor district of Pacifica in June.

In his position with the San Mateo Boy Scout organization, Lake has worked with adult volunteers, organizing Boy Scout troops and training adults for Scouting leadership positions.

Vander Hule said that a complete list of job duties and responsibilities has been prepared for the new manager. He added that the chamber is ready to fulfill what he termed was a complete role in the community.

The chamber, he noted, is now undertaking a study of industrial needs and possible development for Pacfiica.

The new manager is a gradu- (Please See Page 2, Column 6)

Frank Lopez of 152 Acacia Drive, tried to commit suicide by jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge, police said, but his friend, Marcel LaFargue of San Francisco, and a passerby, Charles Lynch, also of San Francisco, held him long enough to be pulled to safety.

LaFargue jumped over the bridge railing to a girder eight (Please See Page 2, Column 4)

S.M. County Has Lowest Rate of Tax

San Mateo County has the lowest tax rate of the 58 counties in the state of California, and if this isn't enough of a record, it also chalked up the greatest reduction in county tax rate in the state.

These encouraging statistics were announced last week by the County Supervisors' Association, it was reported to the Board of Supervisors by Assistant County Manager A. R. Middaugh.

He said the announcement by the Supervisors' Association confirms a prediction made early this year by County Manager E. R. Stallings that San Mateo County's rate would be the lowest of all counties.

Offer Is Repeated

A special repeat offer in today's issue of The Post announces to readers how they may receive 26 free issues of The Times—San Mateo County's largest afternoon daily newspaper.

A special four-page color section appearing on Pages 29 through 32 contains a special $2 value coupon that may be redeemed for the 26 free issues.

The section also tells about valuable gifts that are offered to new subscribers to The Times.

The Times, a 76-year newspaper tradition in San Mateo County, is now offering daily home delivery service to Daly City residents, as well as to householders in Colma, South San Francisco and Pacifica.

Last month alone, 2,232 new families joined The Times' readership ranks.

Today's supplement also contains two pages devoted to Times' features, columnists and news coverage for prospective new subscribers.

Additional information may be obtained by calling The Post at WY 2-2262.

JUHS to Hold Bond Election

In a discussion preceding setting January 25 as the date of the bond election, Morgan recommended the date because it would coincide with the elementary district's election.

He noted that in 1961 the two districts held simultaneous bond elections and that the results were "most successful." And he added:

"I think it would be a drastic mistake for any school district to follow by a few weeks another school district's election."

Morgan remarked that the high school district has never lost an election and added that "I have great faith in the voters of this district."

Earlier, trustees directed the administration to call a meeting of the four high school building supervisors and "an impartial engineer" to prepare a program of inspection of its boilers and related facilities.

The district's high schools use low pressure boiler systems. The State Division of Industrial Safety does not make regular boiler inspections except on high pressure boilers. These are conducted annually.

The trustees acted after discussing an administrative recommendation that a consulting engineer be retained to inspect the boilers.

Trustee James Cooper noted that the district's personnel were not basically engineers and could not be expected to detect all cases of boiler wear or malfunction.

"I'm not being scary," he said, "but something could happen. This has happened elsewhere."

Board Chairman Elio Fontana proposed preparation of a rigid boiler inspection schedule that the district's personnel could be trained to follow.

In other action, the district:

Called a special meeting for 5 p.m. Monday to consider the application of a new law providing for a negotiating council when a school district has two or more employe organizations.

Received a $90,000 check from an insurance company, representing a settlement the district was awarded as a result of a 57-day damage suit trial.

The district had sued the Callan interests for damages in connection with a slide on the Westmoor High School grounds.

Approved a policy statement, opposing once again a proposal by the County Committee on School Organization to split the district.

The proposal is expected to be considered in December by the State Board of Education, which previously had rejected the plan.

Library in Pacifica to Be Dedicated

The new San Mateo County branch library in Pacifica will be formally dedicated at 3 p.m.

Pacifica Mayor James Fox will preside at the dedication. Colors will be presented by the Civil Air Patrol.

The new, split-level library at Palmetto Avenue and Hilton Way in the Sharp Park District is built on a hillside overlooking the Pacific Ocean. A terraced landscaping of groundcover plants and junipers, as well as pine, cypress and eucalyptus trees, surrounds the building.

A pebble-tiled entrance way houses a culture room, a glassed display case, and planter. Halfway up the staircase to the first landing are large windows overlooking the Sharp Park Golf Course and the coast.

The main library is on the second floor but there are exits at street level from the side. The front section has modern reference and catalog desks, card and folder files, circular reading tables and chairs.

Although the library has been in operation for several months, the dedication was delayed until equipment and landscaping had been completed.

Council Faces A Long Agenda

small parking areas rather than a few large ones.

The commission also recommends that plans for parking areas be flexible rather than specific and that all ocean frontage not included in the general plan be designated for public use.

An additional alternate for a proposed marina is suggested. Either the lagoons of the Sharp Park Golf Course or Pedro Point are proposed.

The Park, Beach and Recreation Department (PBR) has accepted the present proposals for the beach from the city's northern limits to Mori's Point and will further study the plan and make recommendations.

A letter from Edwin Wade, mayor of Long Beach, urges the council's suport of legislative action to reclassify to felony from misdemeanor the use of Molotov cocktails.

In his accompanying recommendation, Police Chief Neil Tremaine adds that not only should their use be ruled a felony but also their manufacture and transportation.

In another action tonight, the Park, Beach and Recreation Department will recommend in a letter that the City Council accept an offer from the Jefferson Union High School District for a community baseball field at Terra Nova High School.

Differences between the Laguna Salada School District and the PBR Recreation Department may be cleared up at tonight's meeting with the receipt of final approval from the District of an agreement for joint care of playgrounds.

The District would provide irrigation and maintenance of the irrigation system and the city would provide other maintenance, mowing, fertilizing and re-seeding turfed areas. The city would also maintain upkeep of "skinned" infields.

The Planning Department will recommend that the city's sign ordinance be revised to prohibit "flashing, oscillating and rotating signs."

In other business, the Council is expected to:

Act on a letter from John Cushing of El Mar Transit that he be allowed to install benches for users of his "Little Red Bus."

Hear a report on the status of Safety Commission recommendations for deer area signs and walkways on Hickey Boulevard and other places recommended by P-TA units. Sharp Park Road markings have been completed, reports City Manager Karl Baldwin.

Consider adoption of the new Basic Plan of Civil Defense in the wake of Saturday's test drill.

A public hearing on Henry Doelger's Fairmont West subdivision also is scheduled to be heard at tonight's meeting.

Commenting on his new job, Lake said he feels the responsibilities will parallel the work he has been doing.

"I have been working with volunteers and with the chamber I will be continuing to do so," he said.

Lake is chairman of the Small Business Division of the United Crusade in Pacifica. He will continue in this capacity and will also maintain his association with the Boy Scout movement in a volunteer capacity.

He steps into a position that has been embroiled in two controversies within the last year.

Overfield, the former manager, resigned in late August, charging that the chamber's directors had altered the budget—cutting his salary—after it had been presented to the City Council for examination.

Vander Hule replied that the budget was not in final form when it was presented.

Overfield was the chamber's first full-time manager. He stepped into a position formerly held by Basil Gladieux on a part-time basis.

D.C. Girl Badly Hurt In Accident

An 18-year-old Daly City girl was seriously injured shortly after 9 p.m. last Wednesday when she was struck by a car while crossing Geneva Avenue at Rio Verde Street in Daly City.

The victim, Sandra Johnson, 126 Rio Verde, was admitted to Peninsula Hospital with fractures of both legs, pelvic injuries and multiple abrasions.

The driver of the vehicle, Frederick Arthur, 54, of San Francisco, was cited for failure to give the right of way to a pedestrian.

He told officers the girl had "seemed to dart across the street."

Witnesses said the girl was in a crosswalk when she was struck.

district attorney's office revealed that the county's growth in juvenile delinquency is more than 5 per cent above the rate of population growth.

SEVERAL speakers at the workshop emphasized parental responsibility in connection with the juvenile crime rate.

They noted that the state legislature last year became aware of the increase in juvenile crime and passed a number of laws applying to youthful offenses.

The laws, it was pointed out, largely increase the responsibility of a parent for the unlawful actions of his child.

COUNTY JOB

Interest Lags in Top School Post

If there is much interest around the county in Superintendent of Schools James R. Tormey's $20,000 a year job, there hasn't been much evidence of it.

No one has announced publicly that he is interested in the position, which will be up for grabs as Tormey serves out the last year of his term and prepares for retirement.

Tormey, who said he intends to stay aloof from the cominb campaign and election estimated that there are perhaps 300 persons in the county who have the necessary qualifications to run for the job.

The position requires a general administrative credential, Tormey said, or the holding of two or more equivalent credentials.

The incumbent said that apparently no one on his own staff intends to run for the position, although several have the qualifications.

Tormey said he has heard from only two persons who have expressed an interest, both being superintendents of relatively small scool districts in the county.

Tormey has announced that he will not seek re-election and will retire after 16 years in the county's top school job. Before his election as county superintendent, he was an administrator at College of San Mateo, then San Mateo Junior College.

The superintendent expressed a hope that top people in the educational field will consider running for the position in the June primary election. But aside from that, he said, he will not get involved.

"One person who should have nothing at all to do with this should be the incumbent superintendent," he commented. "I'll do my darndest to stay out of it."

LLOYD C. MEDLOCK

Lloyd C. Medlock, 44, 195 Morningside Drive, Daly City, died Saturday at the family cabin in Soda Bay, Lake County, of a heart attack.

He was shop foreman for the Jack Harvey auto repair firm in Hayward, and a native of Marianna, Fla. He had lived in this state for 27 years and eight years in this county.

Survivors include his wife, Maybelle Medlock; three children, Peggy, 15, Mary Elizabeth, 5, Lloyd Jr., 10, all of Daly City; his mother, Mrs. Lucy Medlock of Marianna, Fla.; two brothers, W. C. Medlock, of Marianna, and Sgt. Rufus Medlock, with the U.S. Air Force in Canton, Ohio. He was a veteran of World War II.

Medlock was a member of the East Bay Auto Mechanics' Union.

Funeral services will be held at 10:45 a.m. today from Patterson and O'Connell Chapel, with the Rev. Clifford S. Droke of the Wesley Methodist Church, Daly City, officiating. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Contributions to a favorite charity are preferred.

ANDREW A. BAGUSIN

Andrew A. Bagusin, 75, 211 Arroyo Drive, South San Francisco, died at Fort Miley Hospital last Tuesday after a long illness. He was a native of Odessa, Russia, and a resident of South San Francisco for 16 years.

He was an assistant manager for John Hancock Insurance Company, and a member of Bernard McCaffery American Legion Post, and of the San Francisco Horsemen's Club.

Survivors include his wife, Laura; a brother, Dr. Alexis Bagusin, Baltimore, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Aronson, St. Louis.

Funeral services were at Larson Garden Chapel. Interment was in Golden Gate National Cemetery.

VIOLA NASH

Mrs. Viola Nash, 51, 1171 Manzanita Avenue, Pacifica, died Thursday at County General Hospital. She was a native Californian.

Surviving are her husband, William Nash, and a daughter, Shirley McChesney, both of Pacifica.

IN INDUSTRIAL CITY

Sheep Rustling Charge Levied

A San Francisco man was charged with sheep rustling early Thursday in South San Francisco, the industrial city.

The charge is automatically a felony, although the "unemployed carpenter," Arlando Dean Lucas, 45, was accused of attempting to take only one sheep.

Police Officers James LaChance and Miff Singleton reported they stopped Lucas, trying to leave the Swift & Company stockyard on East Grand Avenue, just after midnight.

The officers had been called to the scene by Swift officials, after a stock drover had encountered a man trying to steal a sheep.

Drover, George A. Coceley reported he was driving a bunch of hogs along a stockpen passageway, when the animals stopped near a stockwagon.

The wagon had never "spooked" hogs before, he said, so he returned to investigate it after getting them past.

Underneath, Coceley said, was a man holding a sheep by all four of its feet.

"What are you donng there?" asked Coceley, jabbing at the man with his stock whip.

The figure dropped the sheep, and stood up, striking his head on the underside of the wagon, Coceley said.

Coceley then started leading the man down the passageways toward the stockyard office, but the man recovered from striking his head, and leaped over a fence.

Coceley ran to the office, and reported.

Officials called police, and police arrested Lucas as his half-ton pickup, lights out, drove out of the stockyard.

By LE PACINI

WE ARE about to embark on an exercise testing the basic faith of man in general, readers of this column in particular.

As you may have noticed last week, we studiously avoided World Series talk. This was the result of a weekly column (which carries Friday deadline), a tight race, and a busy personal schedule which caused us to write the column even earlier than usual, so early, in fact, that the Giants were still in the chase.

Now for this week.

You must believe that this column was written on the eve of the World Series, again because of personal commitments. We will have no time to rewrite it.

All of this has been an elaborate build-up for what may result in your author making a jackass of himself, because we think that the series will go seven games, that the Dodgers will win it only because of a superhuman pitching effort by Koufax in the finale at Minneapolis.

Drysdale will get blasted in the opener, and Koufax will allow three or four runs in the second game and lose by one or two. Back in LA, the Dodgers will rally with Osteen, Drysdale and Koufax. The Twins will tie it in the sixth back home, and Koufax'll finish 'em off in the seventh.

WHY DO I say these ridiculous things? Law of averages. Two win four straight would mean the Dodgers would have to win 19 of the last 20 games they played. Under pressure, that's just too murderous a pace. Also, Koufax and Drysdale just can't keep throwing shutouts. Also, they're not used to pitching with five days' rest. Such luxury may throw them off their feed.

And the Twins, who will be playing with their regular lineup more or less intact for virtually the first time since early season, are good, plenty good.

Besides, isn't the World Series just a little bit anticlimatic for the Dodgers?

It's always said by the experts that in a short series the team with the pitching always has the edge. But this theory has always been based on the assumption that the pitching team has no relapses. Why can't good pitching have a bad week in a short series just as well as it could have a good week?

We'll admit Koufax rarely has bad days, which is one reason he refuses to pitch on Jewish holidays. After all, a guy can't be that good all by himself.

MOST PEOPLE (many of them bandwagoners who hopped on at the winning streak) were mad at the Giants because they couldn't get World Series tickets. We were mad at them because we had tickets and never got a chance to use them.

Which leads us to Charley Finley's argument of playing weekday series games at night. As Finley says, if night games are good enough to determine the season's league champion, why aren't they good enough to determine the world's champion?

But enough idle chatter. On to more important things, like all of the odd World Series statistics we looked up and forgot to use last week.

For instance, the combined New York-San Francisco Giants have lost the most series'—10. And the Yanks have won the most four game series — 6. And, get this one, the Red Sox have won the most EIGHT game series'—2. You see, baseball started with seven game series', switched to eight, and reverted back to seven in 1922 when some shrewd official figured this method would help break ties. The NL has won 11 of the 19 seven game series.

NOW HERE's a REAL shocker that you can win some neighborly bets on. The Red Sox have the Best Series win-loss record, as well as the best game-by-game record. They've won five series', lost only one, and have played .632 ball (24-14-1).

You'll love this one. The AL has won more series games away than at home — 182 to 177.

There have been only 31 extra inning games, the NL holding a 17-12 edge (two ended in ties) by virtue of having won six of the last seven played. The longest game played in total innings was between the Red Sox and Dodgers at Boston in 1961. Boston lost, 2-1.

YOU CAN talk about your present-day iron men relief pitchers, but Hugh Casey pitched in six of the seven games for Brooklyn in 1947. He missed the last game of the series, and that's the one the Yanks took to win it all.

Had the Giants won and Spahn had started a game, he would have been, at 44, the oldest pitcher to ever pull off the feat. John Quinn was 43 when he started for the Athletics in 1929. If Spahn would have completed the game, he would have surpassed Grover Cleveland Alexander, who was 39 when he finished one for St. Louis in 1926. Had Spahn relieved and finished, he would have beaten Quinn again, who was 44.3 when he did it for the Athletics in '30. Spahn would have been 44.6.

The smallest attendance was during the fifth game at Detroit in 1908—6,210. The Cubs won that one, 2-0. The Tiger fans must have known something.

The smallest gate receipts were collected by the Giants and Athletics in the third game at Philadelphia, 1905. There were only $8,348 worth of fans to watch the Athletics lose, 9-0. And THEY must have known something, too. The player pot for that series was only $27,394.20.

Contrast this latter figure with the fact that the losing Yankees of '63 made $7,874.32 apiece.

NOW THAT that's over, we'll tell you how the Dodgers REALLY won the pennant. Your author's wife handed it to them. She's the kind a gambler would pay not to sit next to him.

Remember that 12 inning game against Cincy, the one broken up by Lou Johnson's homer? How he hit it was, we had the radio blasting in the bedroom at midnight and the little lady said, "I hope this guy hits a home run so I can get some sleep."

Next pitch, POWEEE!!! And that's how the Dodgers won the pennant, and we figure we're in for a series cut.

LOCAL TAG ENDS: Bud Harrelson, whom the Mets are grooming for Roy McMillan's shortstop post, is a former San Francisco State PE major . . . Daly City resident Charley Fox, who also coaches third base for the Giants, will spend his winter in Phoenix managing the Giants' Arizona winter club . . . And a salute to local dentist Ron Luceti, who recently won his third San Mateo County golf championship. There will be no tough extractions this week.

Serra Back Hurts Colts In Non-Loop

By BOB JOHNSON

El Camino High School's Colts must be wondering right now what they have to do to win a football game.

Nipped by Serra High School, 15-13 on Friday night at Clifford Field, the Colts failed to win a practice game all year.

With a bye this weekend, El Camino moves into North Peninsula League play in two weeks with nothing better than a 6-6 opening game tie with Aragon to show for the pre-league season.

Friday night in South San Francisco, the story of the Serra game was all wrapped up in the person of the Padres' fine halfback, Dan Johndrow.

Johndrow, the Padres' workhorse ball carrier, picked up 100 yards for the second week in succession as he led the Padres.

Johndrow also counted for both Serra touchdowns. He threw a 40-yard halfback option pass to Rich Gantenbein for one and caught an 18-yard aerial from quarterback Dick Wood for the other.

The margin of victory, however, was credited to Serra's alert defensive unit, who trapped El Camino quarterback Mickey Ackely in his own end zone for a safety five minutes into the contest.

The victory, Serra's thiid straight since an opening loss to Hillsdale, gives the Padres a practice season mark of 3-1.

Serra opened the scoring when a host of Pads caught Ackely trying to pass from his end zone. Just five plays later Johndrow took a pitchout from Wood, faked a run, and fired the touchdown pass to Gantenbein, who was 10 yards behind the Colt secondary. After five penalties on the PAT attempt, a pass play failed from near mid-field and Serra led, 8-0.

Early in the second quarter El Camino put together its best drive of the night.

The Colts marched 60 yards on eight plays to score with Ackley alertly sighting a weakness in the Pad defense to sneak over from 10 yards out. Serra had shifted its linebackers to cover Colt flankers and there simply was no middle linebacker.

With just :51 left in the half, Wood hit Johndrow on an 18-yard scoring pass to cap a 59-yard, seven play scoring drive.

The combination of Serra fumbles and an alert El Camino defense continually stalled Serra drives druing the scond half.

However, El Camino could not get on the scoreboard again until there was only three minutes remaining in the game.

Russ Outlaw took the five-yard scoring pass from Ackley with a diving end zone catch. But then Serra ran out the clock to bag their third win in a row.

Padre Rambles

SERRA HIGH School fullback Tim Carter (33) tries to round the corner in Friday night's non-league game with El Camino High School at Clifford Field. The Padres, now 3-1-0, won the title, 15-13, and duel Riordan High School this weekend. The Colts, 0-3-1, have a bye this week and will ready themselves for NPL play which commences in two weeks. Indians Get Scalped By CAL Eleven

By ERIC McCARTNEY

Jefferson High School finally broke their trend of playing tie games last Friday, but head coach Joe McGrath is not pleased with the manner in which they broke that string.

Recovering from two past defeats (to Tamalpais and Burlingame) Riordan High School of San Francisco destroyed the Indians, 28-7, in Daly City to break the local's tie-game skein at two in a row.

Jeff has a bye this weekend to plot strategy for their league opener with El Camino in two weeks.

The contest was dominated by Riordan and rushing, in that order. Riordan quarterback John Maxwell threw only five passes, completing two for 43 yards while Bill Shelvar of the host team seemed to throw only to Riordan defenders.

Riordan's touchdowns came on runs of 20 yards by Dennis DiDiRicco, 15 yards by Jim Walsh, a three-yarder by Maxwell and a 35-yard pass from Maxwell to Pete Bandalan, Riordan's third-string halfback who gained 102 yards on 12 carries.

Jefferson robbed Riordan of the shutout in the final period as Bob Untalan grabbed a 21-yard pass from Shelvar for the Indians' only touchdown.

The victory gave Riordan a 2-2 record while Jefferson holds a 0-1-2 mark.

Hornets Sting Westmoor, 33-14

By RICH THILL

Stung by Novato High School Hornets 33-14 last week, the Westmoor High School Rams journey to Cabrillo Junior College in Santa Cruz Saturday to take on a big Soquel High School. team.

Last week's game came to an abrupt end with a minute and twenty seconds left in the final period when Ram coach Matisi withdrew his team and called the game to a halt.

Matisi's decision came after his kicker was roughed, and was preceded by two sideline incidents.

Novato displayed an awesome running attack, scoring in every period. Their ground machine was powered by tailback Dick Otis who accounted for 162 of the Hornets 260 yards on the ground, and scored three touchdowns.

In the first period, Novato took the ball on their opponent's 40 and scored in seven plays on a 13-yard run by Otis.

Westmoor took the kickoff on their own 20 and held on for three sets of downs, but were finally forced to punt after being thrown for a loss.

The second segment revealed three consecutive touchdowns and Westmoor claimed two of them. After a poor Novato punt, Westmoor ground out 35 yards for its first tally of the day. Dotur plunged over from the five and Verducci ran the conversion to tie the score.

The Hornets, though, came right back on their first play from scrimmage and caught the Ram defense napping. Quarterback John Dolinsek, unable to find a receiver, decided to run and scrambled 53 yards for a six pointer.

Undaunted, Westmoor then surprised everyone. Working from a shotgun formation with Grady Proctor at the trigger, the Rams exploded with an aerial attack as Proctor completed three passes for 65 yards including a 15 yarder to Phelps in the end zone.

In the second half, though, the Hornets proved too much for the Rams. Otis and ends, Tom Corder and Everett Fritz joined forces to chalk up 20 points.

The first touchdown was the finish to a 52 yard drive as Otis flew over tackle from the two. It was Otis scoring again, this time from the 10 after Novato recovered a Ram fumble. Fritz booted both conversions and the score was 27-14.

Another Westmoor drive was thwarted when Novato intercepted a Proctor pass on the Ram 42. Four plays later the Hornets had six more points on a 17-yard pass from Fain to Corder.

Loose Ball at TN!

CLANCY SMITH (20) and Mike Ward (89) of Terra Nova High School set themselves for loose ball in struggle with Half Moon Bay High School last Friday. The Tigers, suddenly alive and kicking after a long string of scoring frustrations, routed the visiting Cougars, 40-19, to rack up the highest point total in their history. It marked the second straight win for the TN eleven and made their record 2-1-1, second only to South San Francisco in the NPL this year. (Post-Times Photo by Willie Kee)

TN ON THE PROWL

Tigers Claw HMB, 40-19

By GENE GIBSON

There is cause for jubilation in Pacifica this week as hard-luck Terra Nova High School has apparently risen to the challenge of playing winning football.

Taking their second victory in a row last Friday, a 40-19 smashing of Half Moon Bay High School, the Tigers displayed a set of offensive claws that might prove a factor in the upcoming North Peninsula League race.

The win, following a 7-6 triumph over Analy two weeks back, was the highest scoring victory in the short short history of the small school.

TN has a bye this week to savor their two-game win string.

A 20-point final quarter wrapped up the win for the Terra Novans after the contest had see-sawed back and forth.

Breaks paved the way for the three TN touchdowns in the fourth period as the visiting Cougars, who came up the coast with only 17 men in uniform, gave the ball away three straight times.

The Tigers, who now sport the second best pre-league mark of any North Peninsula League school at 2-1-1, got clinching scores from Jim Bonner, Mike Kenny, and Clancy Smith.

That trio accounted for all 40 of TN's markers and racked up the bulk of the home club's yardage.

Bonner carried the hide 16 times for 100 yards, Kenny 14 times for 72.

Each scored twice and tallied at least one PAT apiece.

Although Terra Nova managed to win in a waltz, Half Moon Bay made a good tilt of it during the first half.

The score was tied twice in the first half, with Terra Nova edging out to a 20-19 lead at the end of three periods of play.

Chief Half Moon threat in that half, and the entire game was monstrous full back Clarence Sloan, a 225-pound behemoth, who carried the ball 18 times for 176 yeards and two touchdowns, both in the first two quarters.

Terra Nova's coach, Bob Fisher, while pleased with the victory, was displeased with the Tiger defense.

He cited Sloan's fine performance as somthing that his club did little to halt.

Half Moon Bay added spice to the tilt by refusing to punt on fourth down even with big yardage to go.

Sharks Fall To Spartans In Shutout

Oceana High School, having failed to tally a single point thus far in the football season, travel down the coast to Half Moon Bay High School Friday after losing to strong Hogan High School of Vallejo, 40-0 last weekend.

Coach Jess Jones' crew, now 0-3 for the year, fell behind early and never recovered.

The visiting Spartans completely dominated the play Saturday, holding the home eleven to only three first downs and a net of only 73 yards total.

Hogan racked up 461 yards on the afternoon and scored two touchdowns in the first three periods before the reserves took over.

Spartan Mike Schrivener was the main thorn in the side of the Sharks with three touch-touchdowns.

Quarterback Bob Harlocker tossed three td passes for the visitors and completed all five of his throws for 122 yards.

The Sharks must now face an up-and-down Cougar team that was thoroughly trounced last Friday by neighboring Terra Nova.

The Cougars, 1-2, have beaten Crestmoor, 19-2 for their sole win of the campaign.

Ram Runners Take Match

Westmoor High School's cross-country team routed South San Francisco High School in their North Peninsula League opener last week, 20-42.

Gary John of S.S.F. won the event in 9:45 with the next two places going to Westmoor's Ed Temple in 9:47 and Jerry Palmer in 9:54.

The Rams also took the junior varsity, 20-41, and the frosh-soph meet, 15-50.

CSM Edges Past Merritt

Although Collebe of San Mateo is tied for the Golden Gate Conference leadership with a 1-0 record today, the Bulldogs will rate an underdog's role wh... they travel to perennial league doormat Diablo Valley Saturday night.

San Mateo set a league record for scoring futility while holding Merritt College of Oakland scoreless and recording a 2-0 victory Saturday afternoon at College Heights.

Diablo has won only two of 21 GGC games! But, prior to Friday, the Vikings were rated 12th among the nation's junior colleges and had a 2-0 practice record—compared to the 0-2 marks of San Mateo and San Jose.

One Gift Does Work Wonders

THE 1965 CAMPAIGN of the United Crusade is now under way in San Mateo County and four neighboring Bay Area counties with volunteer workers seeking a total of $15,155,885 that will provide funds for 172 separate health, welfare, and character building agencies in the total of five counties. The amount sought is approximately 22 per cent larger than last year.

The amount needed from individual contributors, therefore, calls for added generosity from all the people who have so generously supported the United Crusade in past years.

While an admirably planned campaign has been set in motion to secure the needed funds, the larger sums required this year from all of us may be given more easily if we reflect upon what the united method of giving has come to mean.

AS WITH THE predecessor Community Chest, the United Crusade way of contributing to the general welfare has become an almost integral part of life in the Bay Area. It is the major or sole support of necessary and worthwhile agencies that have taken on fundamental roles in the social structure.

In many cases, these agencies perform work that would have to be tax supported if the funds were not contributed on a voluntary basis. In many other respects, these agencies represent social progress and social values that are so desirable that they could not be discontinued without serious disruption of our accustomed manner of living.

In an efficient age, the United Crusade has become an efficient and effective means of sharing with those who need help and of supporting the endeavors that protect the aged, preserve family life, guide the young, and maintain human dignity.

BUT BECAUSE the United Crusade is efficient we sometimes tend to forget that it is really a means by which each of us, according to his own lights, can participate personally in the age-old virtues of faith, hope and charity. It permits each of us to give, in the most effective way ever designed, whatever our consciences tell us we owe to society and to others according to our religions, ethics, and the eternal well-spring of human kindness.

One of the miraculous results of this is that the United Crusade can achieve far more than we could ever achieve as individuals.

Thus, though the United Crusade is an efficient way of meeting our obligations to our neighbors and all of those who need faith, hope or charity, it is still fundamentally the help and the generosity that speak from our own hearts.

In a year when the United Crusade needs more because it must do more, let us remember all this and give generously. One gift works wonders.

St. Veronica's Church

ST. VERONICA'S Catholic Church at 434 Alida Way in South San Francisco was founded in November of 1951. Members of the parish first met at the Sportsmen's Lodge. The present structure was completed in June of 1953. The Rev. Paul P. Coleman has been the pastor at the church since its founding. A school has been built on the church grounds. It was completed in 1958. The rectory was finished in 1958. There are approximately 1,600 families in the parish.

The Trustees Were 'Joggled'

Don Miller

THE SIXTH item on the agenda of the Jefferson Elementary School District read simply:

"Authorization to advertise bids for the purchase of a collator for the Education Center."

Simple enough, it seemed to anybody reading over the agenda. Quite simple, thought the gentlemen who had prepared the agenda.

Not so, said trustees of the district after reading a supporting explanation of the proposed transaction. The explanation said the administration was asking for authorization to purchase a collator more suitable to the district's present operations. Then came the stickler:

"The collator now being used is to be exchanged for an automatic joggler."

Trustee O. Wayne Douglas looked blankly across the conference table at fellow trustee Peter Galiano who looked just as blankly back at Douglas.

"A joggler, huh," mused Galiano. "That's not a collator."

The district superintendent replied it was not, and the meeting then developed into a sort of seminar in business office equipment techniques.

A COLLATOR, it seems, is a marvelous machine—or so the gals in the district's business office staunchly aver. It gathers up great reams of papers and neatly assembles them and staples them together in sets. It's decidedly a time-saver.

A joggler, it was explained, is like a right hand man to the collator. It jiggles, joggles and generally rattles the stack of papers to be stapled so that all the edges are nice and straight and the whole shebang is ready for the collator.

Now the problem in the business office, it was patiently brought out by the administration, was the vintage of the present collator. At the decrepit age of ten (decrepit in terms of today's rocketing technology), the collator just couldn't cut the mustard any more. (It could, but not fast enough.)

To operate Old Gather Up, a secretary had to be a kind of juggler and manually perform a number of quick-handed motions designed to help Old Gather Up do her duty.

TODAY'S COLLATORS, however, are to Old Gather Up what Gemini 5 is to that first thing the Wrights flew back in the early years. Unlike the old gal, the 1965 version of the collator does everything automatically—at the nonchalant push of a button.

One of the souped-up latter-day versions of Old Gather Up has been in use by the district for the past year as a demonstrator.

So good has the demonstration been that the administration decided to get one for real. Hence the request to buy one—linked with a proposal to trade in Old Gather Up for a joggler.

As we said at the outset, it all seemed simple enough. But it was that joggler thing that threw trustees off. The suspicion was that the collator and the joggler were one and the same.

Ultimately, the course in Intermediate Joggling and Collating 238, three credits, Tuesdays and Thursday, was concluded and trustees approved the transaction.

The discussion consumed nearly a quarter of an hour. It was conducted, ironically, a scant few moments after trustees had toyed with the idea (subsequently dropped) of meeting every week because sessions held twice monthly were getting too wordy.

MR. CHIVALROUS—This week's award for gallantry in the highest tradition goes without a demurrer to Daly City Councilman Bud Lycett who was recuperating at Peninsula Hospital in Burlingame from a heart attack.

When Jean Markovich of Daly City and friend Ann Bracco of South San Francisco dropped in for a visit while in the hospital on other matters, Lycett quickly got to his feet and did the same thing later on when the ladies got up to leave.

Now for a fellow who had just suffered a heart attack, the last thing he's supposed to be doing is jumping up and down. But then this Lycett, it sems, is no ordinary fellow.

While we were talking with Jean about the incident, by the way, we asked her about that intriguing listing in the phone book.

It says "Teenagers Telephone" and its the second number listed after "Markovich, Peter." (Dad Markovich, as you know, is the manager of the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce.)

Jean says she got the idea for a separate telephone for their four youngsters after visiting friends back in Omaha. Back there, it's strictly in vogue.

OTHER SIDE OF THE FENCE — Bill Chapman, former Daly City engineer who was asked to give his expert opinion and recommendations on all applications coming before the Planning Commission, is finding out how it's like to be on the applying side of things.

He's the planning consultant for an entrepreneur seeking a rezoning of land near Alta Loma Avenue and San Fernando Way to build a convalescent home and pharmacy, almost adjacent to Mary's Help Hospital.

Bill is a partner in Kirker and Chapman Associates. The rezoning application was scheduled to be heard by the commission last night.

RETIREMENT A GO-GO—Friends of Anne Eason who saw her breezing through Westlake in the passenger seat of a top-down English sports car the other day are convinced now (if they weren't before) that Anne's "retirement" from the Jeff High School board of trustees didn't presage retirement, period!

Anne had been attending a get-together of the North Peninsula Circle of the Florence Crittenton Home and "bummed" a ride back with a photographer who had been assigned to the get-together.

When the photog asked if she'd mind riding in his top-down sports car, Anne breezily agreed.

The photog's reaction?

"She held onto that grab bar and rode as if she'd been tooling along in her own sporty runabout for years."

Glue-Sniffing—a New Problem on Peninsula

By VERA GRAHAM

UNBEKNOWNST to the average parent, there are today in the United States many thousands of children and adolescents who are or are becoming addicted to glue-sniffing — and their number includes San Mateo County boys and girls.

The American Social Health Association, Inc., has nationally distributed a special 22-page booklet entitled "The Glue Sniffing Problem."

The greatest warning issued is that, "Perhaps the most direct relationship between sniffing glue and addiction is that the glue could serve as a prelude to the use of heroin . . . there are data that suggest that glue-sniffing may currently be the most likely prelude to later heroin use among young people."

SAN MATEO COUNTY Chief Probation Officer Loren Beckley commented:

"This is something we have been dealing with for several years—it is nothing new—but it is a problem of tremendous concern . . . statistically in our total picture, it isn't as large a problem as others, but we do have the problem, and when you have it, believe me it is a serious one."

He said in 1963 there were six cases of glue-sniffing handled by his department, all were boys. Last year, however, the number was 12 and of that number, five were girls.

Lorene Beasley's Better Business column may be found today on the business page.

It is difficult to relate or interpret the reason for the involvement of girls without a careful study, commented Beckley.

San Mateo County Superintendent of the Mental Health Services Division Dr. Joseph Downing said as far as he has been able to determine the Child Guidance Clinic has not had any occasion to deal with the glue-sniffing problem. "Our greatest problem among teen-agers is alcohol, and that is a tremendous problem," he said.

"We find in general the use of materials to affect consciousness will begin in a small group — one adolescent will experiment and then persuade his friends. That's usually the extent of it, it is uncommon for something like this to spread generally."

DR. DOWNING noted that glue-sniffing, though the latest such problem, has been preceded by teen-age sniffing of gasoline, turpentine, solvents and even mother's nail polish.

The solvents to create the same dulling effect as alcohol must contain hydrocarbon derivatives. Cleaning solvents which contain carbon tetrachloride can kill if enough is used.

The "sniffer" can be spotted just the way a drunk can. The speech is thick, confused, explained Dr. Downing, the individual acts erratically.

The condition comes on suddenly and clears up suddenly. Those who usually become so involved have emotional problems and, even as the drinker, seeks escape from his unhappiness, tension and troubles.

Howard Yonkers of Hobby Haven in San Mateo noted that September 17, a new law into effect which prohibits a youngster under 18 from buying a 15-cent tube of glue needed in model-making.

He must buy it in a kit — the cheapest of which costs 29-cents. Before a boy or girl can buy a separate tube of glue he or she must produce an identification card, showing they are of age.

"But," commented Yonkers, "it's really quite unfair that the attention centers on glue, when we know of cases of kids taking cigarette lighters to school and during recess periods taking a whiff to get their 'kicks.' The glue is essential to hobby work, and without any doubt it is going to make it more difficult to interest kids in creative, productive hobby work.

PARENTS, of course, may buy the glue. In Anaheim a law was passed which makes glue-sniffing a misdemeanor and it goes on any youngster's record.

Surveys show the result has been a major drop in the incidence of glue-sniffing. The Hobby Industry Association has been very instrumental in getting the law passed to prevent glue-sniffing.

The Ameriacn Social Health Association study shows that boys make up the large majority of the cases and they are usually under 17 years of age, with the greatest number in 12 to 14 bracket and it emphasizes that "official reports substantially under-represent the incidence of glue-sniffing."

The effect of sniffing occur 30 to 45 minutes after inhalation of the fumes.

Habitual users tend to start with small quantities and increase the amount gradually. The personality of glue-sniffers varies, widely of course, but many indicate a tendency toward withdrawal, a lack of interest in school work, moodiness and restlessness.

Extensive users may produce increasing irritation of the nasal passages resulting in considerable discomfort.

He Isn't Convinced

Barbara Bladen

THIS TIME LAST YEAR, producer Herb Rogers was facing an unpredictable future. He had left two successful theaters near Chicago to put together shows on the Peninsula, an area regarded highly for its interest in culture, its ability to afford theater and its sophistication.

Rogers isn't at all convinced at this point that any of those assumptions are true. Good, bad or indifferent, "the show must go on." But as he noted over luncheon the other day, "there's no curiosity on the Peninsula for theater as there is in the East."

The Hyatt Music Theatre generated some static from the public in the beginning because of acoustical, air conditioning and box office problems. Its first season got off to a slow start but recovered ground fast enough to keep pace with its competitor to the south.

Whatever management and financial problems it had was kept from the public, who saw only big name, high-salaried performers star in shows that improved with better direction and better casting, as the season progressed.

The theater's future hasn't brightened because there's still a larger, well finaced and carefully managed theater in San Carlos looming between it and a clear field. Residents have become used to the idea that there is professional theater in their community but the secret of getting more of them to attend is what both theaters are looking for.

ROGER'S FUTURE and the theater's future are not destined to run parallel. He's planning a new spring season for Burlingame and at the same time he's mapping a campaign for an opening season in Honolulu where the seemingly shy, talent-producer-casting director has leased the elegant, brand new 2,170-seat Honolulu International Center.

The proscenium stage theater is the latest in design, all with red interior, adjacent to the new sports arena with plenty of parking space — and three miles from Waikiki Beach.

He'll do six musicals between June 28 and September 18, beginning with Pat Suzuki in "Flower Drum Song." It was a great stroke of luck, good timing and cold cash that got him the theater which has been used by James Doolittle of the Greek Theatre Association in Los Angeles for concerts and an occasional road company production. The Honolulu Symphony uses it in the winter and the house is operated by the city with a civil service paid staff.

"It's a producer's dream. No land or building costs, no stagehands or big advertising budgets. We spend $4,000 a week at Hyatt for advertising and over there, with only two papers, it will average $700 a week. I'll go in with a staff of one and only have to worry about the shows, not house management."

Poor Dad! He's A Goat of TV

Samuel Chandler

WHAT AN EXPERIENCE! I read Max Gunther's article, "The Plot to Slander Manhood," in the October "True." Then I spent an evening watching TV. What an experience!

The picture of American men served up by the family comedies shows father as a jackass incapable of performing the simplest tasks.

As his children look on with amusement, he blunders through one situation after another.

His wife, wise and tolerant, waits until he makes such a mess of things that she has to step in and save him. Finally she pats him on the head, says "Good boy, good boy." The nincompoop smiles and everybody laughs.

TO ADD TO the insult, the fool is pictured as a highly successful man. In the Donna Reed show, he is a medical doctor; in Father Know's Best, he is an insurance counselor; in the Dick Van Dyke show he is a writer; in Hazel, he is a lawyer who draws at least forty grand.

But at home he can't tie his shoe or take a bath without his wife's help.

Look at the Danny Thomas show for example. In a typical show, father barges into his son's campaign for student body president with a band, buttons—the works.

The son gets the big head, the father gets censored and good old mom steps in to humble the boy and spank the father. Then the fool goes out to make a killing in the entertainment world.

IN TV FAMILIES, the girls are smarter than the boys. They manipulate and dominate their brothers and boy friends. The boys, in turn, make like jesters in the courts of their betters.

They know that they will grow up to be "muddleheads" — as their daddys have done.

To find why at least 20 shows of this type flourish each season, Gunther went to the people who should know. The answer most often given was simple—they make people laugh.

A PSYCHIATRIST pointed out that father still represents authority and Americans like to see authorities get clobbered.

A woman columnist suggested that such shows grow out of American chivalry. It is not cricket to laugh at a woman. "Harpoon a man and it tickles him," she writes, "harpoon a woman and she bleeds."

Well, maybe, but what an experience!

Sponsored by the Post-Times

Entries available every Tuesday and Wednesday in The Times; every Wednesday in The Post

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Select the winner of each game by placing an "X" in the box on the margin side of the team you think will win. If you predict the game will end in a tie, place an "X" only in the column headed "Ties" between the two teams. If the game ends in a tie, credit will only be given to contestants who predict the tie.
2. Write the total net yards (rushing and passing) that you think the S. F. 49'ers will make in Sunday's game in the box provided. (This estimate will only be used in case of ties between two contestants.)
3. Clip and mail the entry blank to:
FOOTBALL CONTEST

4. Entries must be postmarked prior to midnight Thursday of this week or delivered to The Times prior to midnight Thursday of this week. The Times is not responsible for entries lost, delayed or destroyed or which fail to reach The Times by 9:00 A.M. on Saturday.
5. To receive the cash prize the winner must pick all 15 games correctly. If the entry does not pick all games right, then the winner will receive 2 tickets to the Big Game, California vs. Stanford, on November 20. The previous week's contest cash prize will be added to the next week's contest if it is not distributed to a winner. This cash prize will be given to the winner of the final week's contest if it has not been distributed before. The final week's winner will not need to guess all 15 games to win the cash prize. In case ties cannot be broken between contestants by means of the tie-breaker, the prize will be divided equally. (This includes ties between contestants who pick 15 winners.)
6. A bonus of $50 will be given to each cash prize winner (not Big Game ticket winners) who is a home-delivered subscriber to The San Mateo Times or indicates immediate delivery of The Times is wanted. To qualify for this bonus, either of the boxes at the bottom of the entry blank must be checked. In the event two or more subscribers divide the contest cash prize, the bonus prize will be divided in the same manner.
7. Number of entries from one household is limited to fifteen (15) on official entry blanks but only one (1) exact sized facsimile of the official entry blank may be submitted. Submission of more than one facsimile in any one week will render all facsimilies submitted by that contestant void.
8. Entries may be attached to a postcard, mailed in an envelope or delivered by hand to the San Mateo or the Daly City offices of The Times.
9. Anyone may enter the contest except employes of The Times or immediate members of their family.
10. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decisions. All entries become the property of The Times, no answers may be returned. The Times reserves the right to correct any typographical errors in the entry blank which affect the outcome of the contest. Answers to the contest or winners' names will NOT be given out over the phone. Winners will be notified by The Times.

JANET THOMPSON AND TERRY CHRISTMAN

Wedding Set In February For Couple

Mrs. Leneta Thompson of San Francisco has announced that her daughter, Janet, will wed Terry Christman of Colma in February.

The romantic news was disclosed at a family dinner at a restaurant in San Francisco.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Christman of 971 Foothill Drive.

Janet is an alumnae of Mercy High School in San Francisco and attended City College of San Francisco.

The groom-to-be is a graduate of Westmoor High School in Daly City. He attended San Francisco State College.

He now plays professional baseball in the New York Mets farm system.

Kathy Gerrans, Robert Darling Exchange Vows

The marriage of Kathy Gerrans and Robert Darling was solemnized in Holy Angels Catholic Church in Colma.

The new bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gerrans of Colma. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Darling of 140 Romney Drive, South San Francisco.

For the afternoon ceremony, the bride selected a white taffeta gown trimmed with lace and pearls. Her father escorted her down the aisle.

Mrs. Judy Shea, the bride's sister, was matron of honor in aqua taffeta gown. Similarly attired were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Eleanor Ehle and Marlene Gerrans. The flower girl, Tracy Callan, wore white organdy eyelet.

Warren Colbert Jr. assisted as best man. Mack Ehle and Mike Gerrans ushered.

The bride is a graduate of Jefferson High School in Daly City. Her new husband attended South San Francisco High School and City College.

The couple will live in South San Francisco after a trip to Southern California.

Sugar... 'n' Spice

By NELL NORTON

"DO YOU ever," or rather "don't you always wish you could find something different for sandwiches in lunches?" After all even second graders finally become tired of peanut butter or bologna "no mayonnaise, no mustard, no butter." And I hear from my friends who have a larger number of lunch takers that it really becomes a problem.

With this fact in mind, and searching around for that "something different" I recalled a wonderful cheese spread my mother used to make. With the aid of Uncle Sam's trusty mail service I had the ingredients and quantities in writing in a short time. I made it up and it was just as good as I remembered it. So I hasten to pass it along to you.

PIMIENTO CHEESE SPREAD

1 lb. mild cheddar cheese
1 can pimientos
½ cup mayonnaise
2 teas. prepared mustard
1 teas. sugar

If you are blessed with a food grinder, use the coarse blade and grind up the cheese. If you don't have a grinder use a food grater. Place the cheese in a medium size bowl and cut the pimientos into it. Next combine the mayonnaise, mustard and sugar and add this to the cheese and pimientos. Blend well and store in a covered container in your refrigerator.

When ready to use take the amount you need from the container and add a little cup or two of hot water to make it more spreadable. Add lettuce to your sandwiches if you wish, but plain it's delicious.

This makes a large amount, almost a quart. It is also delicious on crackers or spread on bread and toasted for hot canapes.

ANOTHER delicious filling for sandwiches consists of leftover ham, put through your food grinder, and celery, carrots and a bit of onion. All these ingredients should be ground with the coarse blade so they will retain their character. Finally make a dressing of mayonnaise and a bit of horseradish and blend all together. Store in refrigerator in covered container.

And about those peanut butter and cheese sandwiches. Make a rainbow sandwich with a slice of white bread with peanut butter, topped by a wheat bread with jelly on it and the last layer white bread and butter. To make it especially pretty, trim off the crusts and cut the sandwich into triangles.

To finish off a lunch box there should be fresh fruit, milk and something sweet. How about these oatmeal cookies, chock full of raisins and nuts.

OATMEAL DROP COOKIES

2 cups sifted flour
½ teas. salt
½ teas. baking soda
2 teas. baking powder
1 teas. cinnamon
½ teas. cloves
1 cup shortening
1½ cups brown sugar
2 eggs, beaten
2-3 cup sour milk
1½ cups rolled oats
1 cup raisins
1 cup chopped nuts

Note: If you don't have sour milk on hand, use regular milk and add one tablespoon white vinegar to sour it. Set aside while you go on with recipe.

Sift flour, salt, soda, baking powder and spices together. Cream shortening with brown sugar until fluffy. Add beaten eggs and mix well. Add sifted ingredients alternately with sour milk in small amounts. Add oatmeal, raisins and nuts. Drop from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350-degrees) until browned, about 12 minutes. Makes between four and five dozen.

Louanne's Datebook

By LOUANNE HEATH

HAVE YOU a little spare time that you could spend clipping and pasting newspaper articles in a scrapbook, or typing miscellaneous material such as song sheets, letters, announcements or more mundane office correspondence?

If you feel you might be interested there is a need for your talent in the volunteer program for the North County Mental Health Center, according to an announcement made last week by the new publicity chairman for the Mental Health Center in Westlake, Mrs. Ernestine Shepard.

The North County Mental Health Center is the first Regional Center of the San Mateo County Division of Mental Health Services to be established.

The program embraces the concept of Community Psychiatry, a well-rounded program in which both preventive psychiatry and treatment are offered. Dr. Joseph J. Downing has the over all responsibility, in San Mateo County, for Psychiatric Services which include both inpatient and outpatient psychiatrc treatment, rehabilitation and consultation services. When North County Mental Health Center opened at 45 Southgate Avenue in Daly City, on January 14 of this year, under the leadership of Dr. Howard Gurevitz, this new concept was brought into being within one unit.

TO IMPLEMENT this community based program, the professional staff of the center, needs innumerable co-operative relationships with community groups of all kinds. Groups may assist with financal support or the members may serve in the volunteer corp.

According to Mrs. Shepard, in addition to typing, cutting and pasting, there are many other volunteer positions. The center wishes to develop a strong motor service to transport patients to and from the Mental Health Center. Volunteers are needed to call regarding appointments, assignments or meetings. Persons to aid with child care in the reception room while mothers are beng interviewed are needed as are volunteers who can assist with the preparation of research findings, carts, tables, etc. and escorts to show visitors through the center and help orient new volunteers with the overall operation.

Mrs. Shepard, herself, is a volunteer worker worth emulating for she is regular in her turn as a center worker in addition to doing her duties as publicity chairman for the newly formed American Cancer Society of San Mateo County.

MRS. MAX WAHL, another indefatigable volunteer, is president of the auxiliary which will seek ways to aid the American Cancer Society in its efforts to discover the causes and cures of cancer, by locally being of service to the community. Mrs. John Leonard is the vice president, and Mrs. James Oscampo is the secretary-treasurer.

The unit is scheduled to hold its fourth meeting in Mrs. Wahl's home on October 21, at 8 p.m. To date the group has explored, with Mr. Micheal Keneally, program and education chairman for the society, the use and availability of various films about cancer.

Anyone interested in membership is requested to call Mrs. Wahl, PL 5-5495 or Mrs. John Leonard, PL 6-4189, for more information, Mrs. Shepard said.

THE ITALIAN Catholic Federation, Branch 19, is having its annual communion for members and their guests at the 8 o'clock Mass at Holy Angels Church on Sunday morning, according to Mrs. Bianca Caserza, publicity chairman.

Following the Mass there will be a breakfast for members and their friends at the El Rancho Hotel, in Millbrae. Tickets costing $2.25, may be reserved by calling Mrs. John Baglietto, 756-9219.

THE MEMBERS of Jobs Daughters Bethel 348 are preparing for a mystery trip and a weekend of fund with the girls from the Jobs Daughter Bethel at Altahoe.

Honored Queen Karen Narup has planned the event which will begin with departure for an undisclosed location on Saturday. The local girls will meet the Tahoe group and return with them to Pacifica for a dinner meeting and a Go to Church meeting at the Crystal Springs Methodist Church the following morning.

The long weekend will be concludes on Monday when the Bethel honors one mother and one father the outstanding helpers for the year.

MR. AND MRS. Louis Merlo of Daly City were honorees at a champagne anniversary party in the home of their son an daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Merlo Jr. Co-hosting the gathering of relatives and friends were their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Len Costanzo.

The junior Merlos decorated their home, tastefully, in gold and white, and the main table was graced with a large traditional wedding cake.

IT IS still not too late to make reservations for the Our Lady of Mercy Parish Day With the 49ers, scheduled for October 24, according to Mrs. Kathryn Glebo who does the publicity chores for the Westlake Catholic Women.

Tickets to the ball game and buffet are being sold for $7.50 or for adults who would enjoy dining out that evening, but who are not avid football fans, may purchase tickets to the buffet for $2.

The buses will be leaving from the lower play ground of the parish school at noon on the twenty-fourth so to ensure your being among the game goers, call now, PL 6-2144 or PL 5-4333, for reservations.

FINAL PLANS have been made for Mary's Help Hospital Guild Fall Fashion Show and luncheon to be held on Wednesday, October 27 in the grand ball room of the Fairmont Hotel.

Mrs. Fred Mortara, model chairman has announced that Mrs. Dario Baciocco, Mrs. Donald Baldocchi, Mrs. Gene Colbert, Mrs. Frank Falconi, Mrs. Philip Glebow, Mrs. James Harding, Mrs. Emilo Olcese, Mrs. John Swendsen, Mrs. William Welsh and collegienne models Diane Tonelli and Marcella Tinney, will be modeling the fashions from Rodina-Mendelsolles.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Rodney Hamblin, PL 5-1936.

According to Mrs. Toddy Caldarola, publicity chairman for the show, this annual event is always one of the major activities presented by the guild and has a long history of success. Don't delay in making reservations for your group!

Post Office Bids Called For Bayshore

New bids to operate a contract post office station in the vicinity of Geneva Avenue and Rio Verde Street in the Bayshore-Visitacion District of Daly City have been called, according to Vincent P. Murphy, postmaster.

The station would provide full postal service and serve as a location for patrons to receive mails for which notices to call have been left.

Opening date for the bids will be 9 a.m. Thursday, October 21, in Room 103 at the main post office at 1100 Sullivan Street at Eighty-eighth Street in Daly City.

Two previous bids received by the Post Office for a station were rejected on the grounds that they were too high.

College Tips For Readers Are Offered

A special series of articles that suggests how young people not only may get into college but how to stay there has started in the daily San Mateo Times, parent publication of The Post.

Author of the series is Prof. Leslie J. Nason, considered one of the most knowledgeable educators in the country and at present the author of a regular column for The Times.

Prof. Nason has been helping students with their learning problems for half a century. He has included much of his expertise in the new series, which will comprise 15 articles.

The articles also will be offered in a booklet entitled: "How to Get Into College and Succeed."

The booklet is available to Times' readers at a special price of $1.

Pedestrian Badly Hurt In Daly City

An 18-year-old Daly City girl was seriously injured shortly after 9 last Wednesday night when she was struck by a car while crossing Geneva Avenue at Rio Verde Street in Daly City.

The victim, Sandra Johnson of 126 Rio Verde, was admitted to Peninsula Hospital with fractures of both legs, pelvic injuries and multiple abrasions.

The driver of the car, Frederic Arthur, 54, of San Francisco, was cited for failure to give a pedestrian the right of way.

He told police the girl had "seemed to dart across the street." Witnesses said the girl was in a crosswalk when she was struck.

Driver Hurt In Accident

A San Francisco man was seriously injured last week when a car struck a Devil's Slide bank on Cabrillo Highway and overturned.

Attendants at Peninsula Hospital said Kin Sing Long, 28, suffered serious head injuries and a fractured knee, in addition to other injuries. He was transferred to County General Hospital.

The driver, Jimmy S. Wong, 38, and another passenger, Hugh Kwan, 32, escaped with minor injuries.

All three are San Francisco residents.

Highway patrolmen said Wong lost control of the car on a curve when he swerved to evade another car.

Rosenberg Is Reappointed

Al Rosenberg, a former member of the Pacifica Planning Commission, has been reappointed to the group to succeed Edwin O'Connell who resigned because of a change in jobs.

A member of the commission for five years before he stepped down, Rosenberg also served as chairman of the group for two of the five years.

He resigned from the commission a year ago and gave health and the press of business as the reason for stepping down.

MAN BURNED

James Lester of 3275-A San Jose Avenue, Daly City, suffered minor burns last week when his home furnace flared up as he tried to light it, police reported. He was treated at Alemany Emergency Hospital in San Francisco.

TOOLS STOLEN

Fred Hall of 2150 Geneva Avenue, Daly City, reported to police last week that miscellaneous tools had been stolen from his auto, parked in front of his home.

Introducing the tuned car. 1966 Buick.

What makes a car a car is styling, performance, ride and handling. Only when they're all tuned together is the car a Buick. Like this 1966 Riviera Gran Sport.

You know how well your car's engine runs after a tuneup? Buick tuning has the same effect on the whole car. Not just the engine. The whole Buick. Everything blends with everything else. Styling. Performance. Ride. Handling. All tuned to work together in harmony. That's what the tuned car is. A Buick. Only Buick is the tuned car. (And every Buick is the tuned car.) What the tuned car is is a masterful blending of all the things that make a great car greater. The Riviera for 1966 is the tuned car. It features six-passenger seating, disappearing headlights, a silently efficient new ventilating system and the kind of roadworthiness you'd expect in a car that costs twice as much. (You can get a Riviera for your desk as well as your garage. Send $1 in check or money order to Riviera, P.O. Box 68, Troy, Mich., for an accurate 1/25 scale model '66 Riviera.) But Riviera's not the only tuned car. Le Sabre is, too. And Wildcat. Electra 225. Special. Skylark. Sportwagon. See them all at your Buick dealer's. The tuned car may not mean much to you now. But then you haven't had a chance to drive one yet.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

There's an authorized Buick dealer near you. See his Double-Checked used cars, too.

County Featured in Title Firm Monthly Publication

The development and growth of San Mateo County has been featured in a 32-page layout in the Septemb r issue of Security Title Insurance Company's publication "Date Down."

Over half of the publication is devoted to a comprehensive study of the development in recent years of the industrial parks, business climate and building growth in the county, with feature articles on the history, colleges and population trends of San Mateo County.

Circulation of "Date Down" is made throughout the state to banks, savings and loan associations, mortgage bankers, builders and escrow offices.

In addition, 8,000 reprints of the San Mateo section have been made available for distribution in the county by Security Title's Redwood City Office.

Free copies of the publication may be had by calling any Security Title office in the county.

Crocker Bank Hits All-Time High Levels

Crocker-Citizens National Bank's deposits, loans, total assets and capital accounts reached all-time high levels at the close of the third quarter of the year, according to figures released by Emmett G. Solomon, president.

The bank's net operating income after taxes amounted to $17,180,957 for the first nine months of the year, compared with the September 30, 1964, figure of $17,077,496.

On September 30, 1965, deposits stood at $3,277,825,892, an increase of $186,076,146 over the total as of September 30, 1964.

Cash and securities on September 30 of this year amounted to $1,272,872,217.

BUSINESS

CLOTHING TAKEN

Thieves stole an attache case and a grey suit case with men's clothing from a car owned by John G. Garrison of 659 Skyline Drive, Daly City, police reported last week. Loss was estimated at $195.

D.C. Resident To New Post

A Daly City resident has been appointed as general account executive for McAlister Nationwide Leasing of San Francisco.

Peter D. Hanssen of 522 Westmoor Avenue has been with S. and C. Lease Plans since 1957 and was president of that firm.

He attended the University of California. He and his wife are the parents of two children.

BETTER BUSINESS

Guarantee Needs To Be Explained

By LORENE BEASLEY
Editor, Better Business Bureau "Barometer"

What is a guarantee? It is just a word in the dictionary unless it spells out the who, what, where and how.

Daily, the Better Business Bureau handles problems involving dissatisfaction of the buyer in getting the seller or maker to carry out the terms of the guarantee.

In the final analysis, the guarantee or warranty is no better than the paper it is printed on unless the guarantor is "able, willing and ready" to carry out the terms of the guarantee without quibble or reservation.

THE FEDERAL Trade Commission has issued a set of seven "Guides Against Deceptive Advertising of Guarantees," which pinpoint, and seek to weed out, the numerous guarantee abuses.

These seven questions bring out the seven points:

1. Is the guarantee in writing ing assurance and do you have a copy?
2. Who is going to make good on the guarantee — the store where you made the purchase or the manufacturer?
3. Does the product have to be returned to the seller or will it be repaired in your home? Will you have to stand the shipping charges both ways to the manufacturer?
4. Is the entire product guaranteed, or are just certain parts covered?
5. Who pays the labor charges involved in the product's repair? (Sometimes only parts are covered and the customer pays the entire service costs or split 50-50.)
6. Is routine servicing covered by the guarantee? Are service checks and adjustments made at stated intervals or after a certain mileage (such as 90 days or 3,000 miles)?
7. Is the guarantee based on the price you actually pay or is it prorated on the manufacturer's list, suggested retail price or the current price?

S.S.F. Banker Appointed to New Position

Anthony Disanto, manager of Bank of America's South San Francisco branch since 1954 and a veteran of 43 years with the bank, has been promoted to vice president, it was announced last week by R. A. Peterson, president.

Disanto's promotion was confirmed during a meeting of the bank's board of directors in San Francisco.

Joining the bank in San Francisco in 1922, Disanto worked at the San Francisco head office and the day and night office until 1947, when he came to the South San Francisco branch as assistant manager. He was named manager of the branch seven years later.

During his years in South San Francisco, he has been active in numerous civic and professional organizations, including Lions (in which he has held all offices), Elks' Club, Chamber of Commerce, Downtown Business Men's Association, Real Estate Board of Northern San Mateo County, Manufacturers Association of San Mateo County, United Crusade, Red Cross, International Accountants Society and American Institute of Banking.

He and his wife, Frances, have two adult sons, Mario and Louis. They live in San Mateo.

Candle Firm Opens Branch

The Bluegate Candle Company of Montara has established a branch plan in the Sayres Building on Sharon Way, near the Masonic Temple, in Pacifica.

James Matthews, president of the 25-year-old concern, said the company opened the Pacific branch to handle what he termed was a rapidly-expanding business.

The firm also has a branch plan in Millbrae and a warehouse in San Francisco.

Investment Lectures Set

Fundamentals of investing will be the subject of a pair of free lectures to be held in South San Francisco by the San Mateo office of Dean Witter and Company on tomorrow and October 21.

According to Resident Partner Gordon H. Ossting, the lectures will be held at South San Francisco High School, Room M-2, 400 B Street in South San Francisco. Dean Witter account executive Roy A. Drury will be lecturer for the classes which start at 7 o'clock each night.

Reservations for the free lectures should be made by writing to Dean Witter and Company, 215 East Fourth Avenue in San Mateo.

Terra Nova Topics

By MARI AMONTENEGRO

A UNIQUE new idea has started at Terra Nova this year, it is STIMAX, the brainchild of Steve Scheppler, wood shop teacher.

STIMAX, Skilled Technicians in Manufacturing an X (unnamed product), is an actual company formed by Scheppler's advanced wood shop class.

"Industrial arts is the study of industry or technology," reasoned Scheppler, "so why not start a company?" His students reacted very favorably to the idea and before long were no longer students but employes.

Each had to apply to the company to fill jobs in the design, drafting, engineering, sales, and production departments to cover all the phases of a company. STIMAX also has a board of directors, a president, accountant, personal secretary, program engineer and a public relations man. Scheppler serves as government and company advisor.

EMPLOYES receive a bi-monthly pay check and are fined for infractions of company rules. They are paid according to their classification in management, $2 per hour technicians, $1.50 per hour, or labor, $1.25 per hour. The labor pay scale was previously $1 per hour until labor formed a union and complained to government on the point that the minimum wage law was $1.25 per hour. Government granted them the 25 cent pay raise. Overtime is also paid. The money is theoretical until production actually begins.

The employes' school grades are decided, 75 per cent for the amount of salary earned in their pay brackets and 25 per cent for a test and on attitude. And, according to Scheppler, their attitude is very good. They are all enthusiastically involved in the company.

As he put it, "STIMAX provides to them a realistic experience as to what they will be facing in the outside world."

Right now, the company is in its organization stages. The real aspect (not to mention money) will come in when X is developed and the student body and public have an opportunity to invest in share of STIMAX stock and buy the product itself.

STIMAX's goal is to start from nothing and, in one semester, go through all the stages of planning, preparing and producing to form an operating company. It will then be dissolved to begin again the next semester.

Scheppler's method of instruction has stimulated interest and draws visitors (all are welcome) to the STIMAX plan (Woodshop) for a tour led by the public relations man from 9 to 10 a.m. on school days.

Meanwhile, a possible strike is threatened by the STIMAX Labor Union, which is demanding a pay raise to $1.35—so stay tuned to this column for the latest developments on STIMAX's progress.

Streamlining Hits a Snag

The Jefferson Elementary School District's new streamlined agenda ran into a snag last week when Thomas Noonan, chairman of the board of trustees, reported that visitors had complained that the streamlining was confusing.

Under a system drawn up by District Supt. Frank Greenwood, trustees had been asked to pass with a blanket motion those agenda items considered to be of routine nature.

Noonan directed that the agenda procedure revert to its former format in which each item was acted upon separately.

Terra Nova Club Meets

Terra Nova's Future Business Leaders of America have held their first meeting of the school year.

The highlight of the meeting was a talk on selling candy by a representative of World's Finest Chocolate Company. His talk helped prepare the club for a candy sale.

Among some of the topics that were discussed was the purpose of FBLA.

Notes on parliamentary procedure were passed out.

Republicans to Hold Elections

The North San Mateo County California Republican Assembly will hold its annual election of officers at 8 tonight in the social room of the Bayview Federal Savings and Loan Building at 370 Grand Avenue in South San Francisco.

Club Events To Get Into Full Swing

Teen club activities get underway in full force this weekend as three junior teen clubs sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department open their fall program of activities.

The Bovines, Casualiers and Imperials will all meet this Friday from 7 to 9 p.m. and will continue to meet the first and third Fridays of each month.

The Bovines, under the direction of Barbara Howser and Larry Teixeira, meet at Bayshore School. Sheila O'Shaughnessy and Terry Oudes are the advisers for the Casualiers, who meet at Colma Intermediate School.

The War Memorial Community Center is the meeting site of the Imperials, who have Sylvia Fisher and Tom Martinez as their advisers.

All those who join one of these clubs Friday evening will be admitted to the opening activity free. But all prospective members must bring both copies of the membership application, the $1 membership fee and a recent picture.

Friday, October 22, and each succeeding second and fourth Friday evening of the month will see the Know Names, Roof Raisers and Telstars Junior Teen Clubs in operation.

These clubs meet at the Westlake Park Clubhouse, M. Pauline Brown School and Westmoor Park Clubhouse respectively.

B of A Cites Colma Resident

A Colma resident has marked his 25th anniversary with the Bank of America.

William F. St. Clair of 1723 Louvaine Drive has worked for the bank for a quarter of a century. He has worked at the main office in San Francisco since 1950.

He is currently an officer in the secretary's department.

A NEW SLATE

Officers Elected By RAM Classes

Westmoor' seniors went to the polls last week and voted in a new slate of officers for the fall semester.

Brad Hansen, the newly elected president, and his staff of Scott Jenkins, vice president, Gail Kimball, secretary, and Jan Cabrol, treasurer, "want to make the ensuing fall term the best."

Working with Brad is the new vice president, Scott Jenkins who transferred to the hilltop school last year.

Three girls and one boy were chosen to lead the school's junior class during the fall semester.

Bob Bjorkquist, will wield the gavel as president, with Linda Bastedo as vice president.

Nancy Hasten will act as secretary.

Business major, Pat McGue, will be treasurer.

The sophomores elected their class officers for the present semester.

Leading the class until February will be Mario Sandoval, a newcomer to the politics in high school.

Laura Muscovitch, one of the three female members of the sophomore cabinet, will act as vice president.

Nancy Foreman will be the new secretary and Jan Cumberti will act as treasurer.

The freshmen class elected their officers for the first semester.

Dump Site Buying Is Assailed

County government was taken to task last week by Mayor James A. Fox of Pacifica for failure to carry out its program of public acquisition of dump sites.

Fox declared that the county's policy of encouraging private dump operations rather than public ownership appear to be in conflict with the announced goal of assuring that adequate sites will be available to the year 2,000.

"Effective long-range disposal site planning for the total public interest is being set aside," Fox told the County Planning Commission.

Before the commission was an application by the Serve-U Disposal Company for a permit to operate a dump on a 30-acre site in Green Valley, which lies to the east of Cabrillo Highway and south of Devil's Slide.

Fox noted that public acquisition of the entire Green Valley site was recommended in a study made for the county by a special consultant.

The Serve-U proposal, he said, is in conflict with the recommendations from a number of standpoints, among them a lack of adequate size.

D.A. Seeks Citations

District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson said last week he will go into court October 15 to ask for contempt citations against witnesses who refused to testify before the County Grand Jury.

Sorenson refused to identify the witnesses or to say how many are to be included in his request.

Nine witnesses were haled before the jury in its investigation of the Alvin J. Prara bookmaking case. When they refused to answer questions, the witnesses were brought into court and Superior Judge Louis B. Dematteis ordered them to testify or face contempt of court citations.

The witnesses were taken before the jury again and still refused to answer questions.

Prara, a sheriff's captain and confidential appointee of Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore, was one of 19 persons indicted by a federal grand jury in San Francisco as members of a bookmaking ring.

Rams Choose Editors for The Rambler

Westmoor High School seniors Suzette Eby and Rayme Litchenberg have been chosen as co-editors of the 1966 edition of the Rambler, Westmoor's yearbook.

Taking most of the pictures for this year's Rambler is a second year veteran of the will be assisted by junior Vern Anderson.

As production editor, Cathy Williamson, a senior, is charged with the responsibility of seeing that all work, pictures, layouts, and copy is completed before the deadline date.

The feature editors for the 1966 Rambler are seniors Craig Headman and Laura Caldwell.

Marilee Wilson and Steve Ziegler, both seniors, will be in charge of this years' layout department.

The sports editors are senior Dan Kristovich and sophomore Kevin Lindsey.

The yearbook art department consists of seniors Jan Cabral for hand-lettering and Sue Gleason for illustrations.

New Officers Chosen for Jeff Classes

The student body at Jefferson High School has elected new class officers.

The seniors elected Nancy Motalvo, president, Pete Barry, vice president; Chris Borg, secretary, and Linda Alcalde, treasurer.

The juniors elected Dennis Fisicaro president, Jeanette Wertenberg, vice president, and Yvonne Pack, treasurer.

The sophomores elected Tom King president; Adoracion Tanchoco, vice president; Alena Moura, secretary and Sandy Torrez, treasurer.

A Custodial Workshop

ED ROSE, center, director of buildings and grounds for the Jefferson Elementary School District, listens while a manufacturer's representative discusses equipment methods at a custodial training clinic conducted for the district's custodial personnel. The representative, Art Rodgers of the Hockwald Company, was accompanied by John O'Day, left, also of Hockwald. The clinic included films, slides, discussions and demonstrations.

Brown Tours S.M. County

Govenorr Edmund G. "Pat" Brown toured San Mateo County Friday, winding up with a talk to more than 200 enthusiastic Democrats at a fund raising party in Hillsbirough.

The governor greeted nearly all county Democratic leaders at the crowded party at the home of Donald Werby with the exception of Assemblyman Leo Ryan.

Ryan was staging a private dinner at his home for Assembly Speaker Jess Unruh only a few miles from the governor's affair. Neither Ryan nor Unruh attended the fund-raising fete.

Earlier in the day Brown had toured the plant of The Post-Times. He praised the facilities and conferred with Publisher J. Hart Clinton and his staff.

The governor lunched with the executive committee of the San Mateo County Development Association at the Holiday Inn.

At the reception in Hillsborough Brown reiterated his promises to maintain the state's growth and to keep the state water resources at a peak level. He thanked all local party workers.

The governor was escorted by San Mateo Attorney Arlen Gregorio, local Democratic chairman.

Contractor's Trial Set

Walter Julian, East Palo Alto flooring contractor, is to appear in Superior Court next week for arraignment arising from the shooting of his wife last month in San Mateo.

Julian appeared in Central District Municipal Court Friday with his attorney Gerald Ragan, and waived preliminary hearing on charges of attempted murder and assault with intent to commit murder. Judge Thomas B. Caldwell ordered him certified to Superior Court for arraignment October 22 at 9 a.m.

The defendant is accused of shooting his wife, Jane, 30, three times last September 19 to climax a domestic argument in the kitchen of friends' home. Mrs. Julian lost her right eye as a result of the shooting. She is reported recovering satisfactorily.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Trustees of the JEFFERSON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT will receive bids for a COLLATOR.

Each bid shall be made out on a form to be obtained at the office of the school district and shall be accompanied by a certified check or cashier's check, or a bid bond for at least ten (10) percent of the amount of the bid, made payable to the order of JEFFERSON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT, 101 Lincoln Avenue, Daly City, San Mateo County, on or before 2:00 P.M., OCTOBER 26, 1965, when it will be opened and publicly read aloud.

The above mentoned check or bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract, if awarded to him, and will be declared forfeited, if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract.

The right to reject any and all bids or waive any informality in the bid is reserved.

No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of 30 days after the date set for the opening thereof.

Dated: OCTOBER 4, 1965.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"

Many people do not know that a person can lose all of his teeth—even though they are not decayed.

Gum disease can cause loss of all teeth, by leading to destruction of the bony sockets and the periodontal membranes that teeth need for support.

Gum disease is often the result of neglect that allows accumulation of tartar on teeth; if not removed, these accumulations start the processes that result in disease.

Regular checkups give the dentist an opportunity to guard against gum disease by cleaning and scaling the teeth. Even if the gum disease has started, your dentist, if given a chance, is usually able to prevent serious trouble.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth as even the beautiful modern dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Birth Control Is Considered For Program

Brith control education is one of the programs being considered for the "war on poverty" program in San Mateo County, it was announced last week.

A spokesman for the County Human Resources Commission said that "family planning" is one of the projects listed in the county's application for federal funds.

But the spokesman said there is no firm plan at this time to establish birth control clinics. It was only listed, he explained, as one of the possible programs that might be started to justify the county's participation in the federal "war on poverty" program.

Other possibilities listed in the application which would be in addition to the usual programs such as pre-kindergarten schooling and neighborhood youth corps, include nursery schools, multi-service vocational service centers and expansion of legal services for the pppor.

Entertainment and Dining
by LLOYD JOHNSON

Giannotti's Surf House For Wedding Receptions

RON GIANNOTTI'S SURF HOUSE was destined to be a success since the opening of its doors. Continental and American dinners are prepared by master chefs. This is a popular site for wedding receptions; a meeting place for early and late-evening cocktails. . . . Topic of restaurant conversation, these days, is the date set for the opening of the new VILLA HOTEL COFFEE SHOP. Keep tuned in—will alert you as soon as it's available. . . . The cocktail lounge and bar area at JOE ERCOLI'S LEANING TOWER resembled a Candlestick Park crowd, during the first World Series broadcast. There are more "tips" passed out for JOE COHEN'S BAY MEADOWS at this sportsmans paradise than found in the shade of table plates by waiters. . . . BOB ROBERTS and ANGELO CENTANNI are receiving raves galore on the service of their SKYLARK'S sizzling steak dinners. You should try it—really great! . . . THE 3-BEATS continue to attract and please big crowds in NICK'S Pacifica dinning and entertainment fun center. Don't miss MARY ANN HAY singing "Bill Baily."

Ron Giannotti

GEORGE CORDOBA, considered one of the fastest guitar players in the business, who is currently featured at The Matrix (3138 Fillmore Street in San Francisco), is a musical whiz on classical and opera seelctions. George was the featured guitarist for five years with Xavier Cugat's orchestra . . . The King's Table in Redwood City deserves "royal" mention for serving its "subjects" one of the best "All you can eat" for $1.50 spreads in town. . . . Even with the summer season fading into the past, the sun tan Erwin Best of the Benjamin Franklin Hotel sports is sill very much in evidence. This gent is the picture of health at all times. . . Z. L. Loo and sons are proud to present their splendid Charm Garden which features Chinese food at its best served in an atmosphere of beauty and congeniality. . . . Larry Benson's Girdleers are packing Me-n-Ed's Pacific Heights fun and pizza palace on Friday and Saturday nights. . . .

G. Cordoba

WHEN YOU SERVE 200 TO 300 PERSONS for luncheon, there has to be a good reason—and at BERTOLUCCI'S restaurant in South San Francisco it's the kitchen supervision of mama Bertolucci for her daughter, LOLA, and son, LARRY. Entertainers Tony Bennett and Buddy Greco top the list as frequent diners here. . . . That line of people which extended out to the sidewalk on El Camino, Sunday afternoon at 6 p.m., in front of THE GOURMET TABLE, speaks well for the "All you can eat" food fare served here. . . . One of the most outstanding seafood menus in the Bay Area has been especially designed to entice your appetite at the Fisherman's Wharf FRANCISCAN restaurant. Every table has a window view. . . .

LA TOURAINE'S ERNEST LUISETTI reports: He and his partners, MARIE and MAURICE BROSSIER, are making ready a new banquet room which will seat from 10 to 100 persons. This will be a welcome addition for the coming holiday season—with folks planning company and private parties. Food, atmosphere and decor really "Frenchy." One visit and you're a steady. . . . Next time you dine at FRANK TORRES' MONTARA BEACH RESTAURANT, pick up a few ashtrays for the house. Better take along a huge bag to carry them in though—the ashtrays are abalone shells and could make it a little awkward—pocket-wise. . . . Although the BRENTWOOD LODGE dining room is not open on Monday evenings, a warm welcome is extended your way to visit the bar and cocktail lounge. JIMMY PEDERSON entertains at the piano and organ Wednesday through Sunday.

E. Luisetti

Surprise Entertainment Package "The Tahoe Wonderland Tour"

"The Tahoe Wonderland Tour," a feature of the Tahoe Sands Motor Hotel, is an exciting package which includes 3 days and 2 nights of fun in the land of entertainment "The Nevada Way." The schedule also includes luxurious room accommodations (double occupancy).

With the co-operation of Harrah's, Harvey's, Sahara Tahoe, Barney's, and many others, just about every known food, beverage and entertainment package is available in this $27.95 per person "Tahoe Wonderland Tour."

Caravan Inn

The Caravan Inn in Mountain View has revived the popular all-you-desire-for $2 dinners in the Camel Room.

Frank Dennison, who has returned as manager, features a different delectable entree each night, such as roast beef, fried chicken, roast pork and fish fry You dine family-style, with steaming, heaping platters of everything, and, of course, tasty salads, beverages and desserts are part of the irresistible and budget-pleasing offer. Suggest you clip out the ad in today's Bright Lights page for handy reference.

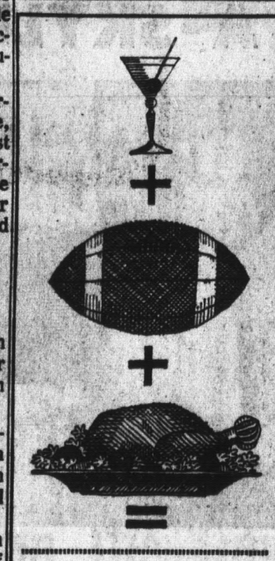
No Matter How It's Served It's Still Lamb Shish Kebab

During an after-dinner conversation with George Mardikian, host-owner of the famous Omar Khayyam's restaurant in San Francisco, I learned that when he first started in business it was the opinion of many diners that they couldn't eat lamb shish kebab.

"Alright then," Mr. Mardikian would say to his guests, "I'll make it with beef." After they had eaten with great relish," continued the connoisseur in eating, "I would say, "I'm sorry, but I have fooled you. What you ate was lamb"—and they smiled their satisfaction."



FANS WHO KNOW THE SCORE MEET AT HYATT HOUSE

Be our guest before or after the game. Hyatt House fans can root for either team. But they all agree on one point: there isn't a nicer place to enjoy a good meal for miles around. Friends coming to town for the game? Lodge them at Hyatt House.

N.Y. Palmer Meets "Lobster Plane"

N. Y. Palmer, Emerson Murfee's keeper of the Villa Square—Chartier, Lanai and Liquor Store—has met many planes at the airport to greet visiting friends, but last Sunday was a switch from the usual. N. Y. was on hand to pick up an "on the double" order of Maine Lobster which was shipped by air for the Sunday Villa Chartier dining room patrons.

Said N. Y. on Monday morning, "Never have we sold so many Maine Lobsters as we did last Friday and Saturday!"

Louise Oliva Makes Pin Point Decisions

Sil Oliva and his wife, Louise, enjoyed a day at the races, the other afternoon, and Sil had all the race forms and tip sheets However, Louise's system was less complicated. She closed her eyes and put a straight pin through the horses' name appearing on the program. Result of the day: Louise, $70.80 winner; Sil, a loser (no amount quoted).

COAST ACCESS

Long Delay Seen In Highway Link

Construction of the link of Nineteenth Avenue Freeway between Skyline Boulevard and the coast, and of the Coast Freeway through the Half Moon Bay area, are projects for the distant future, Deputy District Engineer C. F. Green of the State Division of Highways said last week.

"We don't expect to have money to build these roads for a long time," Green told the County Planning Commission.

Most likely, the engineer said, the east-west freeway will be needed before the coast project, which will probably not be built for 10 or 15 years. In the meantime, Green said, it may be necessary to make some interim improvements, such as widening parts of the Cabrillo Highway to four lanes.

Green also took pains to allay the fears of some residents that the proposed freeways will change the character of the Coastside.

"We'll never get there ahead of the developers," he commented.

The county planners followed the lead of the Half Moon Bay City Council and endorsed the most westerly route for the Coast Freeway and the most southerly route for the Nineteenth Avenue Freeway.

They also suggested that the state engineers take another look at the route they have proposed between Kelly Avenue and El Granada.

The commission urged that, if possible, the route hug the shoreline closer than is shown on the state maps.

The planners also urged the state to take every possible precaution to safeguard the scenic beauty of the areas through which the freeways will pass, both in the design of the highways themselves and of bridges and other highway structures.

25 'Firms' Formed on Peninsula

This week 25 new corporations were born all under the same roof. Organized by 25 teen-agers each, from all of the high schools in the county, they met at the Junior Achievement Business Center, 2201 Palm Avenue in San Mateo. They will meet ness Center, 2201 Palm Avenue in San Mateo, They will meet one night a week until the end of May at which time they will voluntarily liquidate.

The teen-agers are guided in their ambitious attempt to go into business by four adult advisers (executives) from some local firm who will be there only to advise.

Although there will be many stockholders in order to obtain their average capitalization of $150 the students will be the board of directors and will be completely in charge of their own company.

Besides being the board of directors they will also be the production staff and the sales force.

They will manufacture some product from raw materials to the finished item and then sell if both wholesale and retail.

Products range from 50 cents to $3, usually, and can be just about anything from window cleaner to clock radios. They are usually something useful in the home or office and quality is assured.

Junior Achievement is sponsored by about 650 businesses in the Bay Area both large and small and feel that the teenagers are a source of "enlightened" employes after having had a J.A. experience.

There is no other single program that can offer the students experience in all phases of business operation such as management, production, sales and accounting, nor does anything drive home the basic lessons of economics and free enterprise better than "learning by doing," sponsors say.

The size of the program is limited but for the high school student between the ages of 15 and 18 and interested in a chance at leadership, awards, and scholarships, there are still openings.

Junior Achievement only requires one night per week from 7-9 p.m., and is considered an investment in one's future. Interested students may apply at the Junior Achievement Business Center either by phone or in person.

RONALD W. SHAFER, a professional service representative for Smith, Kline & French Laboratories of Philadelphia, will address a luncheon meeting of the Daly City Lions Club at noon next Wednesday in Toto's Restaurant in Daly City. He will discuss new federal drug-control legislation.

Navy Wants New Officer Candidates

Officials at the United States Navy recruiting station in San Francisco have announced that the U.S. Naval Academy is looking for young men of racial and ethnic minority groups for consideration for appointment to the academy at Annapolis.

Basic qualifications include being a high school senior or graduate, possessing the mental aptitude needed for college level work, being of good moral character, and being in good physical condition with no chronic ailments.

Interested young men are encouraged to apply at the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, U.S. Navy Recruiting Station, Room 130, Federal Office Building, 50 Fulton Street, San Francisco.

Kay's Notes

Half Century

Kay Jewelers, the nationwide jewelry chain that operates one of its 178 stores in the Westlake Shopping Center, celebrated its 50th anniversary last week.

The first store opened in Reading, Pa. In California, the chain, now one of the largest of its kind in the nation, has grown to 26 stores.

Coast Sports Schedule Set For the Fall

The Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department has announced a number of new programs for the new school year.

Adult volleyball leagues will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 Tuesday nights at Terra Nova High School.

Basketball will be offered every Thursday night from 7 to 10 for high school students and adults.

The program will be operated every first, third, and fifth Thursday at Oceana High School boys' gym and every second and fourth Thursday at Terra Nova High School gym. The cost will be $1 per year for students and $2 per year for adults.

The Terra Nova High School swimming pool will be open from 1:15 to 4:15 each Sunday afternoon through the winter for recreational swimming. Family swim nights will be held Mondays from 7 to 9. Families will be admitted for $1.

The Pacifica Sea Lions' Club will hold practice sessions at 6 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Terra Nova High School pool.

Boys and girls eight years of age and younger may apply.

Deer Cavorting in Sharp Park Worry Safety Unit

An increase in the deer population near Sharp Park golf course has led the Pacifica Safety Commission to recommend that "Deer Crossing" signs be posted on streets in the area.

Virginia Jaeger, chairman of the commission, reported that the deer have been sighted at Gypsy Hill Road and Sharp Park Road and east of Lindi Way and Fairway Park.

The deer, Mrs. Jaeger said, may be crossing roads to nibble on the green grass and foliage of the golf course.

The commission also has recommended that new center white lines be applied and maintained on some of the sharp curves on Sharp Park Road.

Automobiles taking the curves too wide have worn off much of the markings, which often are the only identification in heavy fog, commissioners noted.

A traffic count is being made at Francisco and Clarendon Road, commissioners were told, because the intersection is considered potentially a dangerous area.

The commission discussed installing a four-way stop sign at the intersection.

'Ballad' to Be Repeated

"The Ballad of the Sad Cafe," dramatist Edward Albee's adaptation of Carson McCuller's novella, will be repeated tomorrow, Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. at San Francisco State College theater. The production is the first of six plays to be offered at the college during the Fall and Spring semesters.

The Sidewalks Were Jammed!

SHOPPERS THRONG the Westlake Shopping Center's third annual sidewalk sale. This scene is of the sidewalk area in front of King Norman's Kingdom of Toys. Similar crowds all but swamped salesclerks manning tables in front of other center stores. The sale ran from Thursday to Saturday last week.
